Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel Friday - 25 August 1978

25X1

25X1

25X1

Page 2

7. LEIGSLATION Discussed with Michael O'Neil, Chief Counsel, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, draft proposed amendments to H.R. 12171, the "Federal Auditing and Accounting Act of 1978." (See Memorandum for the Record.)
8. LEGISLATION Spoke with Mr. Charles Feigaembaum, at the Civil Service Commission, regar	ding amendments to Title VII of the the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act of 1978. I explained to him our continuing problem with this area and asked if he could put some pressure on DOD, which had earlier promised to apprise us of the agreed upon amendatory language. He said he would ferret out the answer and get back to me today or early next week.
g. LEGISLATION Spoke with Lawrence Hammond, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Department of Justice, to bring him up to date on the developments surrounding H.R. 12171, the "Federal Accounting and Auditing

Approved For Release 2004/05/05 : CIA-RDP81M00980R000700110028-3

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

Prep Les

Department of Justice, who called to point out his concerns with one subparagraph of proposed amendatory language to H.R. 12171, the "Federal Accounting and Auditing Act of 1978." Mr. Hammond advised that any reference to powers granted to House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in the amendatory language should take care to retain the status quo. 12. LEGISLATION Spoke with Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.)	Friday - 25 Augu	st 1978	  from Lawerence Hammond, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Department of Justice, who called to point out his concerns with one subparagraph of proposed amendatory language to H.R. 12171, the "Federal Accounting and Auditing Act of 1978." Mr. Hammond advised that any reference to powers granted to House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in the amendatory language should take care to retain the status quo. 12. LEGISLATION Spoke with Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) TREDERICK P. HITZ
from Lawerence Hammond, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Department of Justice, who called to point out his concerns with one subparagraph of proposed amendatory language to H.R. 12171, the "Federal Accounting and Auditing Act of 1978." Mr. Hammond advised that any reference to powers granted to House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in the amendatory language should take care to retain the status quo. 12. LBGISLATION Spoke with Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.)
from Lawerence Hammond, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Department of Justice, who called to point out his concerns with one subparagraph of proposed amendatory language to H.R. 12171, the "Federal Accounting and Auditing Act of 1978." Mr. Hammond advised that any reference to powers granted to House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in the amendatory language should take care to retain the status quo. 12. LEGISLATION Spoke with Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) TREDERICK P. HITZ
from Lawerence Hammond, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Department of Justice, who called to point out his concerns with one subparagraph of proposed amendatory language to H.R. 12171, the "Federal Accounting and Auditing Act of 1978." Mr. Hammond advised that any reference to powers granted to House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in the amendatory language should take care to retain the status quo. 12. LEGISLATION Spoke with Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) TREDERICK P. HITZ
from Lawerence Hammond, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Department of Justice, who called to point out his concerns with one subparagraph of proposed amendatory language to H.R. 12171, the "Federal Accounting and Auditing Act of 1978." Nr. Hammond advised that any reference to powers granted to House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in the amendatory language should take care to retain the status quo. 12. LEGISLATION Spoke with Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 7 FREDERICK P. HITZ
from Lawerence Hammond, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Department of Justice, who called to point out his concerns with one subparagraph of proposed amendatory language to H.R. 12171, the "Federal Accounting and Auditing Act of 1978." Nr. Hammond advised that any reference to powers granted to House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in the amendatory language should take care to retain the status quo. 12. LEGISLATION Spoke with Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 7 FREDERICK P. HITZ
from Lawerence Hammond, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Department of Justice, who called to point out his concerns with one subparagraph of proposed amendatory language to H.R. 12171, the "Federal Accounting and Auditing Act of 1978." Nr. Hammond advised that any reference to powers granted to House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in the amendatory language should take care to retain the status quo. 12. LEGISLATION Spoke with Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 7 FREDERICK P. HITZ
Department of Justice, who called to point out his concerns with one subparagraph of proposed amendatory language to H.R. 12171, the "Federal Accounting and Auditing Act of 1978." Mr. Hammond advised that any reference to powers granted to House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in the amendatory language should take care to retain the status quo. 12. LEGISLATION Spoke with Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.)	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
with one subparagraph of proposed amendatory language to H.R. 12171, the "Federal Accounting and Auditing Act of 1978." Mr. Hammond advised that any reference to powers granted to House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in the amendatory language should take care to retain the status quo. 12. LEGISLATION Spoke with Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.)	from Lawerence H	ummond, Deputy As	sistant Attorney (General, H.R. 12171, the "Federal Accounting and Auditing Act of 1978." Mr. Hammond advised that any reference to powers granted to House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in the amendatory language should take care to retain the status quo. 12. LEGISLATION Spoke with Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.)
House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in the amendatory language should take care to retain the status quo. 12. LEGISLATION Spoke with Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.)	H.R. 12171, the	'Federal Accounti	ng and Auditing Ad	ct of 1978."
Sclect Committee on Intelligence in the amendatory language should take care to retain the status quo. 12. LEGISLATION Spoke with Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.)	Mr. Hammond advi	sed that any refe	rence to powers gr	ranted to
LEGISLATION Spoke with Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) FREDERICK P. HITZ	Select Committee	on Intelligence	in the amendatory	language
Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 7 FREDERICK P. HITZ	should take care	to retain the st	atus quo.	3
Si Lazarus, White House staff, who said that he would personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 7 FREDERICK P. HITZ	1.2	1.17	CICIATION Spoke personally see to our presently nonexistent exemption (for officer's of special collection) in Title VII of the House version of the Civil Service Reform Act. 13. THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) FREDERICK P. HITZ		House staff, wh	o said that he wor	uld
Italian and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) FREDERICK P. HITZ	personally see to	o our presently n	onexistent exempt:	ion
THIRD AGENCY Representatives of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) THIRD AGENCY Representatives				of the of the Agency, State Department, FBI and NSA met to discuss problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) / FREDERICK P. HITZ	nouse version or	the Civil Servic	e Reform Act.
problems raised by requests made by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations concerning electronic surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) FREDERICK P. HITZ	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·		THIRD AGENCY	Representatives surveillance operations. (See Memorandum for the Record.) FREDERICK P. HITZ	of the A gency, S	ate Department,	FBI and NSA met to	o discuss
(See Memorandum for the Record.) FREDERICK P. HITZ	Subcommittee on	nternational One	by the Senate Fore	eign Relations
> FREDERICK P. HITZ	surveillance oper	cations. (See Mer	morandum for the I	Record.)
				2
//Legislative Counsel
		1 //L	egislative Counse	1
I/		Y		